

Our Story Menu Photos

amer-asian cafe-teria experiment

HOME IS WHERE HEART IS!

tsaa, tsokolate, tinapay, baon | tea treats, bakes, bento | お茶、ココア、パン、お弁当 |

let's eat! 食べよ! kain na tayo!

Check Out

Our Story Menu Photos

Our Story

Mama Tars, Tarcela Cabunilas (-Perales) came to the USA from the Philippines to care for me and my family. She was my second mom and the queen bee of our home, who filled our hearts & bellies with love.

Mama Tars was the energizer bunny incarnate. Her curiosity and sense of adventure was inspirational & contagious. She traveled as often as she was able, and when she was home, she never stopped puttering around, always learning, teaching & crafting. Since I was little, I can recall her jotting down recipes from memory in a handy little notebook she kept by her bedside. Later, I noticed she'd stash little index card recipes in the waffle iron and cookie jars. When her handwriting became slower, she'd urge me, 'Can your computer find that recipe I saw them cook on The View?!'. I'm still unearthing those sauce-stained printouts, many moons later now, stuffed somewhere in the bottom of the sewing kit in the closet.

Menu

Food Tings Drink Tings

HOW TO ORDER: Current Menu & Ordering Info will be posted on Instagram. Please contact us for special requests | the below describes some of the Amer-Asian treats we're working on ~~ thank you for your support!

Ensaymada Brioche
Queso de Bolo | Ube

Milk Bread
Stuffed | Plain

Pan de Sal
Stuffed | Plain

Jams, Butters & Spreads